

Halton-Hamilton Source Protection Committee

Daniel Banks

Municipal Representative

Dan Banks is a municipal representative on the Halton-Hamilton Source Protection Committee representing Halton Region, Peel Region, the Cities of Burlington and Mississauga, and the Towns of Oakville, Milton, and Halton Hills. Mr. Banks is the Supervisor of the Municipal Water Resources Group at Halton Region, where he also serves as Risk Management Official. His major areas of responsibility include monitoring Halton Region's groundwater supply, planning for future water demand, and implementing Source Protection Plan policies under Part IV of the Clean Water Act, 2006. Prior to joining the municipal sector, Mr. Banks worked as an environmental consultant and for a conservation authority, with specific expertise in the fields of hydrogeology and water resources management. He has worked on numerous local and regional-scale hydrogeological studies in both Southern and Northern Ontario.
