

Halton-Hamilton Source Protection Committee

J. Scott Stewart

Director, Halton Region Federation of Agriculture

J. Scott Stewart is an agricultural representative on the Halton-Hamilton Source Water Protection Committee. He was born and raised on a dairy farm in Peel county and completed his formal education with a Bsc Agriculture from the University of Guelph. Scott has now farmed in Halton Region for the last 28 years, just south of Campbellville. The farm produces direct to consumer beef and associated crops. Scott has also had successful business careers with Eatons and Canada Post and is currently a director with the Halton Region Federation of Agriculture.